Good Afternoon Dr. Kaye,

We have spoken to Dr. Jain who advised that the exam was work related. As such the exam was 5 hours and 15 minutes in duration therefore that period will be charged to Code 07. The remaining hours (minus the hour lunch break) for that day will need to be charged to your annual leave.

Thank you. Have a good weekend.

Hi Saadya, this should qualify as educational leave for Dr. Kaye. She is a physician and this is part of her professional credentialing. Please advise.

Hi Ms. Rivera

Thank you for your help in forwarding this to the Court Clinic time keeper. I am taking my Child and Adolescent Boards on 9/24/18 at a testing site downtown. I believe I will earn CME credits for this also. Attached is the documentation for my test, I am to arrive early to the testing and when I requested the exam be changed to 10 or 11AM, they said I could start when I get there in the morning.
